HEAR YE, HEAR YE, THE WORD IS OUT: THE SILENT AUCTION IS COMING!!!

So, what is silent about a Silent Auction? Nothing if it is held at First Presbyterian Church of Lebanon, to benefit the Summer 2007 Mission Trips. We need to raise funds for gifts to Guatemala and Brazil. The silent auction is one way members can contribute to this effort of our church.

This is your chance to be heard: The silent auction is coming up and we are in need of donations to feature. Remember that it is for a good cause, the 2007 Summer Mission trips to Guatemala and Brazil. Judy Leonard is the coordinator and she will have nothing to coordinate if we do not donate items for all to bid on.

Perhaps you cannot donate an item, but would like to participate as a bidder. We need those too. And perhaps donating and bidding will move you to join the traveling party, we need travelers too. So, donate, bid, go, and do not stop. And remember, do not keep quiet about the Silent Auction, pass on the word. The Silent Auction will be held on Sunday, May 27th. Donations need to be at church by May 20th or sooner so that these items can be displayed before the auction.
