- Sheleah

I would like to introduce our special guest today, Karen and George Hedges. They are keepers of the flame at Shiloh Music Center in Mt. Juliet where their family has owned this business for over 35 years.

Karen teaches piano in her studio there while George is always on hand to encourage the newly inspired, as well as the seasoned musician in selecting musical instruments, gear and music featured in the store. They have 2 sons Paul, who is currently serving with the Army Reserves stationed stateside with wife Sherry and their two sons Dillon and Cory. The youngest son James, is currently out on tour with the rock group “Reliant K”. Paul has also previously toured with “Little Big Town”. Karen has served as Music Director for Pleasant Grove United Methodist Church in Mt. Juliet for the last 2 years. She is very active in the presentation of well known weekend spiritual workshops “The Walk To Emmaus” and “Chrysalis” for youth.

Please enjoy Karen’s presentation and her wonderful testimony with the song “Amazing Grace/ My Chains are Gone” I know you will be blessed.

Cedar Forest Ministry: Volunteers are needed for the August 30th and September 6th worship services. Please sign up in Fellowship Hall. If you have any questions, contact Richard Hartwell.

Monroe Harding Offering: Monroe Harding Children’s Home was opened as a residential facility to orphaned Presbyterian children in 1893. Today, Monroe Harding partners with at-risk youth and families to provide a bridge toward independence and success. We will receive this special offering today.
