Worship Notes: This morning we are celebrating the sacrament of communion, also called the Lord's Supper. A sacrament is an outward sign of an inward grace. This means that the bread and grape juice symbolize God's love for us in the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ.

The Presbyterian Church believes that the elements stay the same but acknowledges the special presence of Christ in and around the elements through the Holy Spirit. This is a powerful opportunity to commune with Jesus, our Savior and Lord, and be reminded of his love for us.

All those who have been baptized are welcomed to the Lord's Table. This is not a right, but a privilege. It is a call to confess your sins and opportunity to renew your faith. We ask that you hold the elements so everyone can eat the bread or drink the cup together as this symbolizes our unity in Christ.

Mission Team: Amy and Joe Adams return today from their trip to Brazil while Hugo Sandoval continues to travel in South America. We look forward to a report on their travels next month.

Miss Martha's Ice Cream Crankin' First Presbyterian Church, Nashville

This afternoon, from 3-5 p.m. the 21st annual Purity Miss Martha's Ice Cream Crankin' will churn out over 500 gallons of fresh homemade goodness on the grounds of First Presbyterian Church, Nashville. All proceeds go to support the work of the Martha O'Bryan Center, whose mission is to support and empower individuals and families in need in the James A. Cayce Homes and surrounding east Nashville area. The cost for tasting all the ice cream you can is $8.00 for individuals; children under 4 years old will get in free. Tickets will be on sale at the site.

Sunday School Teachers Needed: If you have an interest in leading an adult class or if you want to team teach 2nd-3rd grade, 4th-6th grade, or the Junior/Senior High classes, please contact Deborah Sanders (444-5429).

The LEAD Event will be held Saturday, August 26th from 8:00 – 2:30 at First Presbyterian Church, Nashville. This workshop is a leader enrichment and development event for teachers of children, youth, and adults.
