We welcome Dr. Amos Wilson to our pulpit today. Amos is a retired Presbyterian minister who spent most of his work as a minister in the role of a chaplain, most recently with the Tennessee Department of Corrections. He and his wife, Etta, have many friends in the congregation as it provided the church home for them and their two daughters during most of the 70's and 80's. Since his retirement Amos served as the Interim Pastor of the Downtown Presbyterian Church, Nashville. Etta is active in the First Presbyterian Church, Nashville. Amy and her family live in Houston, TX, and Emily and her family live in Kensington, MD.

Bell Choir: The Bell Choir is seeking people to ring bells and also to ring the chimes. If you can read music and are willing to participate, please contact the church office.
