Sermon "The In Between Times" Dr. Cheetham

Response of the People

* The Heidelberg Catechism

What is your only comfort, in life and in death?

That I belong, body and soul, in life and in death, not to myself but to my faithful Savior, Jesus Christ, who at the cost of his own blood has fully paid for all my sins and has completely freed me from the dominion of the devil; that he protects me so well that without the will of my Father in heaven, not a hair can fall from my head; indeed, that everything must fit his purpose for my salvation. Therefore, by his Holy Spirit, he also assures me of eternal life, and makes me wholeheartedly willing and ready from now on to live for him.

How many things must you know that you may live and die in the blessedness of this comfort?

Three. First, the greatness of my sin and wretchedness. Second, how I am freed from all my sins and their wretched consequences. Third, what gratitude I owe to God for such redemption.

Memorial Flowers: The flowers in the Sanctuary today are given to the Glory of God and in celebration of the life of Jim Purnell by his family.

New Member: We welcome Sheleah Gardner as the newest member of our congregation. Sheleah joined by reaffirmation of faith.

Thank You: I want to thank everyone who made the Youth Fund Raiser yard sale a huge success, particularly Hal Bone for donating the storage container to store donations in and Bill Hamby for the breakfast biscuit makings we sold. I also want to thank all of the Deacons who worked hard on this project. Most of all, on behalf of the Deacons I want to thank the congregation who helped with donations, purchases, and time. We could not have done this without you. As you know, the youth are the future of FPC. We must do everything possible to provide our youth with an environment they want to be a part of. If we don't provide that for them, they will find it elsewhere. I believe we are moving in the right direction, and I urge you to support the efforts for our youth at every opportunity. Thank you again for your support of the youth.
