* Call to Worship

(Psalms 130)

Leader: Out of the depths I cry to you, O Lord.

People: Lord, hear my voice!

Leader: Let your ears be attentive to the voice of my supplications!

People: If you, O Lord, should mark iniquities, Lord, who could stand?

Leader: But there is forgiveness with you,
so that you may be revered.

People: I wait for the Lord, my soul waits,
and in his word I hope;

Leader: My soul waits for the Lord more than those who watch for the morning.

People: O Israel, hope in the Lord!
For with the Lord there is steadfast love,
and with him is great power to redeem.

All: It is he who will redeem Israel from all its iniquities.

Worship Notes: This morning we are celebrating the sacrament of communion, also called the Lord's Supper. A sacrament is an outward sign of an inward grace. This means that the bread and grape juice symbolize God's love for us in the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ.

The Presbyterian Church believes that the elements stay the same but acknowledges the special presence of Christ in and around the elements through the Holy Spirit. This is a powerful opportunity to commune with Jesus, our Savior and Lord, and be reminded of his love for us.

All those who have been baptized are welcomed to the Lord's Table. This is not a right, but a privilege. It is a call to confess your sins and opportunity to renew your faith. We ask that you hold the elements so everyone can eat the bread or drink the cup together as this symbolizes our unity in Christ.

Welcome to Dr. Ann Soderquist: Dr. Ann Soderquist is a Presbyterian minister who has pastored churches in Wilson and Warren counties. She is a member of the Presbytery's Committee on Ministry and its conflict resolution team. Ann does fill-in preaching for pastor colleagues and for churches without pastors. She currently lives in Watertown.
