

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Worship Notes: This morning we are celebrating the sacrament of communion, also called the Lord's Supper. A sacrament is an outward sign of an inward grace. This means that the bread and grape juice symbolize God's love for us in the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ.

The Presbyterian Church believes that the elements stay the same but acknowledges the special presence of Christ in and around the elements through the Holy Spirit. This is a powerful opportunity to commune with Jesus, our Savior and Lord, and be reminded of his love for us.

All those who have been baptized are welcomed to the Lord's Table. This is not a right, but a privilege. It is a call to confess your sins and opportunity to renew your faith. We ask that you hold the elements so everyone can eat the bread or drink the cup together as this symbolizes our unity in Christ.

All Saints Day November 1st

On this special day we remember with gratitude all of the "Saints" of our church who have died during the last twelve months.

*Call to Worship Psalm 24

Leader: The earth is the Lord's, and everything in it, the world and all who dwell therein.

People: For God founded the world upon the seas and made it firm upon the deep rivers.

Leader: Who can ascend the hill of the Lord? Who can stand in God's holy place?

People: Those who have clean hands and pure hearts, who have not pledged themselves to falsehood.

Leader: Such is the generation of those who seek the Lord, for the Lord of hosts is a glorious Sovereign.

All: Lift up your heads, O mighty doors and gates, that the Lord of glory may enter in.

*Hymn 451 LASST UNS ERFREUEN
Ye Watchers and Ye Holy Ones

Prayer of Confession

Hope of all the saints, You have called and sanctified us to be your holy people, part of that great company that has lived and died in faith, we have not always kept the faith, we have been silent when we should be working for peace and justice. Our lives have been shaped more by fear than by faith. Have mercy on us and forgive us. Give us the courage to follow the path of that great company of saints, who throughout the ages have served you with robust faith, confident hope, and steadfast love, that with them we may inherit the kingdom promised, given, and ruled in majesty by the Son of David, our Lord and Savior, Jesus the Christ.

THE SACRAMENT OF THE LORD'S SUPPER

Invitation to the Table

Prayer of Thanksgiving

Leader: O God of majesty, you are holy, and blessed is Jesus Christ, your Son, our Lord, who has joined us together as members of his body, the Church. We rejoice that in his death and rising again, you set before us the promise of new life, the certain hope of a heavenly home, where we will sit at the table with Christ, our host. Remembering your grace given through Jesus Christ, we take from your creation this bread and this cup, and joyfully celebrate his dying and rising, as we await the day of his coming again.

People: Accept this, our sacrifice of praise, O God, as a living and holy offering of ourselves to your service. Nurture us at this, your table, that we may be united together in one faith and service and nourished to proclaim your love and grace in all that we do. Amen.
