Silent Meditation

Prelude

Words of Welcome

Hugo Sandoval

* Call to Worship

(Psalm 119: 137-144)

Leader: You are righteous, O LORD, and your judgments are right.

People: You have appointed your decrees in righteousness and in all faithfulness.

Leader: My zeal consumes me because my foes forget your words.

People: Your promise is well tried,
and your servant loves it.

Leader: I am small and despised, yet I do not forget your precepts.

People: Your righteousness is an everlasting righteousness, and your law is the truth.

Leader: Trouble and anguish have come upon me,
but your commandments are my delight.

People: Your decrees are righteousness forever; give me understanding that I may live.

* Hymn 526

For All the Saints

SINE NOMINE

* Prayer of Confession

Nick Reed

Almighty and merciful God, we have erred and strayed from your ways and we are lost. We have followed too much the actions and desires of our own hearts. We have neglected you and we have abandoned our neighbors. Forgive us for at times we focus on ourselves and get lost in our own ways. O Lord, have mercy upon us, heal us, and makes us whole again. Spare those who confess their faults, and let them receive your grace and be found again. Set us free to serve you in the world as agents of your reconciling love in Jesus Christ. Amen

* Silent Confession

* Declaration of Pardon

* Gloria Patri

Hymn 579

* The Peace

Leader: The Peace of Christ be with you.

People: And also with you.

Sermon "High Ego Meets Zero Ego" Dr. Cheetham

Response of the People

* The Nicene Creed p. 15

We believe in one God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible; And in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only-begotten Son of God, begotten of the father before all worlds, God of God, Light of Light, Very God of Very God, begotten, not made, being of one substance with the Father by whom all things were made; who for us men, and for our salvation, came down from heaven, and was incarnated by the Holy Spirit of the Virgin Mary, and was made man, and was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate. He suffered and was buried, and the third day he rose again according to the Scriptures, and ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of the Father. And he shall come again with glory to judge both the quick and the dead, whose kingdom shall have no end.

And we believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord and Giver of Life, who proceedeth from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son together is worshiped and glorified, who spoke by the prophets. And we believe one holy catholic and apostolic church. We acknowledge one baptism for the remission of sins. And we look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Postlude

Lay Reader: Lesley Jacobson

Worship Notes: This morning we are celebrating the sacrament of communion, also called the Lord's Supper. A sacrament is an outward sign of an inward grace. This means that the bread and grape juice symbolize God's love for us in the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ.

The Presbyterian Church believes that the elements stay the same but acknowledges the special presence of Christ in and around the elements through the Holy Spirit. This is a powerful opportunity to commune with Jesus, our Savior and Lord, and be reminded of his love for us.

All those who have been baptized are welcomed to the Lord's Table. This is not a right, but a privilege. It is a call to confess your sins and opportunity to renew your faith. We ask that you hold the elements so everyone can eat the bread or drink the cup together as this symbolizes our unity in Christ.
